

1. THE LUCY REDMAN GARDEN

6 The Village, Rushbrooke IP30 0ER

3m E of Bury St Edmunds. From A14 take Exit 44 (BSE East - Sudbury exit) First exit off roundabout towards BSE. 2nd roundabout left then immediate right down Rushbrooke Lane. T junction left, then 2m. Turn right before church between white houses, our thatched house is on the left.

Thatched cottage with $\frac{3}{4}$ acre quirky plantsman's maximalist family garden full of unusual plants; housing stone parterre, 10ft sculpture, woven metal turf tree seat, willow igloo and tunnel, decorative organic fruit and veg garden with free ranging hens. A wondrous place, full of inspiration, featured in the Good Gardens Guide. Sedum roofed pavilion where Garden Design and Practical Gardening courses are held (see website for details). Garden visited by Beth Chatto in 2008.

Entrance £2.00 (children free)

Garden clubs, WI's and Art groups welcome by appointment. Refreshments & plants for sale
www.lucyredman.co.uk
01284 386 250, mobile 07503 633 671

2. THE WALLED GARDEN at LANGHAM HALL

Langham Hall, Langham IP31 3EE

From A143 at Ixworth head towards Walsham le Willows, after approx. 2 miles turn right to Langham, entrance to Hall is on the left after 1 mile.

Stroll back in time as you enter this $3\frac{1}{2}$ acre Georgian walled garden, and recapture the spirit of the period. Undergoing a programme of rejuvenation this unique setting is home to market gardener Phil Mizen's Langham Herbs, with vegetable beds, ancient fruit trees, herb & cutting borders. Also, RHS Gold medal winner Sue Wooster's Bellflower Nursery, selling home & locally grown plants. Sue's National Collection of Alpine Campanulas is displayed in a scree bed within the garden's formal layout. Garden/WI groups welcome by appointment.

Entrance £2.00 (children free)

Veg box scheme & herbs for sale
www.langhamherbs.co.uk
Perennials, shrubs, bulbs & alpines
www.bellflowernursery.co.uk
Sue - 07879 644 958
Phil - 07772 457 063

WYKEN

3. WYKEN VINEYARDS THE LEAPING HARE

Wyken Hall, Stanton IP31 2DW

Follow brown signs to Wyken Vineyards from the A143 at Ixworth.

The 4 acre garden at Wyken Hall, created by Kenneth and Carla Carlisle over the past 30 years, nestles around the old manor house that is at the heart of a Suffolk estate. The series of garden rooms include herb and knot gardens, old-fashioned rose garden, maze and kitchen garden that supplies the award-winning Leaping Hare Restaurant.

Visitors can walk through wildflower meadows and ancient woodland to the 7 acre Wyken vineyard.

Entrance £3.50, concessions £3.00
(children free)

The Café is open every day from 10-5
Garden open from 2-5 (excluding Saturdays)
www.wykenvineyards.co.uk
01359 250 287

4. THE FULLERS MILL GARDEN

Fullers Mill, West Stow, IP28 6HD

(Registered Charity)

Fullers Mill Garden can be found 5 miles north-west of Bury St Edmunds. Turn off A1101 Bury to Mildenhall Road sign posted West Stow Anglo Saxon Village. Continue past the entrance to the Country Park towards West Stow village. Fullers Mill garden is 0.6 miles along the road & is clearly signed at the entrance.

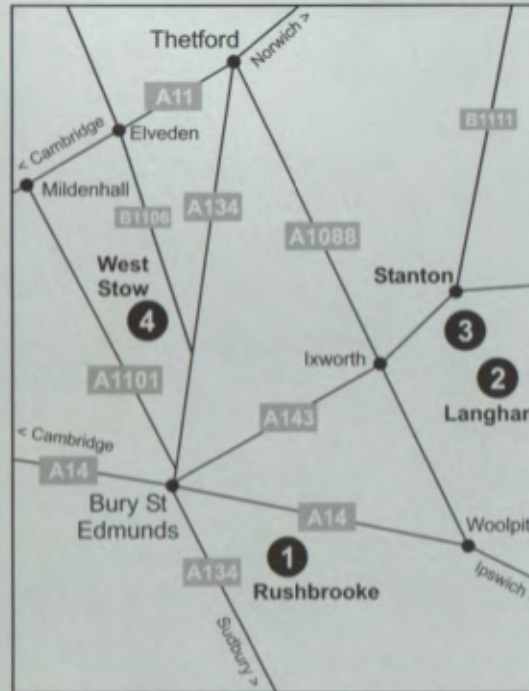

Fullers Mill Garden is an enchanting 7 acre garden on the banks of the River Lark. The garden has been created by Bernard Tickner over the past 50 years and combines a beautiful site of light dappled woodland with a plantsman's paradise of rare & unusual shrubs, perennials, lilies and marginal plants.

Entrance £3.50+50p (Voluntary contribution to the garden)

Open - 2pm-5pm on Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays (April - end Sept)

www.fullersmillgarden.org.uk

0870 803 0248

The Kitchen Garden, Troston is no longer on the Gardeners' Friday circuit. Francine Raymond has moved to Whitstable, Kent. Visit her at www.kitchen-garden-hens.co.uk

*Gardens 1 & 2 are open from 10 till 5 each
Friday gardens 3 & 4 are open from 2 till 5

Enjoy your day

GARDENERS' FRIDAY

Every Friday from April till end September

Take the gardeners' route through breathtaking Suffolk countryside and wander round carefully chosen gardens.

Visit specialist shops and relax in selected cafés.